Went to post at 2:45. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Rollock clearly outclassed the field and could have won much further off. Grafter ran an improved race and seems to get better with every race. Phil Archibald was off badly and his strong effort to get up told at the finish. St. Rica tired in the stretch run.

Scratched—17527 Follow Me, 108.

Merry Boy got off none too well and ran a grand race. Alas came fast through the stretch. Novia and Torsina showed speed for five furlongs and then quit. Pat Morrissey and Espirando ran bad races.

Scratched—17509 Morelia, 93.
De Blaise, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Merry Boy, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Alas, show, evens. Novia, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. f. by Forester—My Gyps.
Went to post at 3:50. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won all out; second easily. My Gypsy was best at the weights, hugged the inner rail throughout and ran a grand race. Rosormonde also ran a great race but the distance was a little too far for her liking. Captive was cut off on the far turn and thrown back, but for which he would have been a keen contender. Constellator was under restraint for seven furlongs and then quit and fell back.

Scratched—17557 Twinkle Twink, 90.

Winner—Ch. g. by Morocco—Kisbern.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 25 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Strategist and Vouch got away well in motion and raced each other into exhaustion in setting the pace fast. Vouch tired badly at the end. Moor saved ground all the way. He hugged the rail at the stretch turn while the others went wide and his race was in violent contrast to his last previous effort. Himself was interfered with in the first furlong and had to go around his field. He finished on the inside and covered more ground than those that beat him.

Overweights—Strategist, 1 pound.

EXCLUDED FROM OAKLAND.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., April 28.—The stewards of the California Jockey Club decided today to deny hereafter to D. J. Lynch and jockeys W.
Martin, Joe Piggott and Milton Henry all privileges of the Oakland track including admission to the grounds.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

James R. Keene is negotiating with Burns & Waterhouse for the services of lightweight jockey Rauch and will probably secure him.
The boy is developing skill rapidly.

Starter Caldwell has been engaged to do the starting at the coming Denver meeting.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The stabling accommodations at the St. Louis track this year are considerably improved.
In addition to new stables being built, some of the old ones have been improved. The old carriage house, for instance, a roomy brick building within seventy-five yards of the paddock, has heretofore been considered an undesirable stable because of the heat. This year a row of stalls which formerly occupied the center has been removed, and broad "loose boxes" ranged along each side. This leaves a twenty-five foot promenade down the center, and when the doors are open at each end, it is one of the most desirable stables at the track.

The following stewards were appointed for the Westchester Racing association meeting at a meeting of the jockey club Friday. August Belmont, James R. Keene and Andrew Miller.

In the recommendation of the stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association
the following horses were reinstated for steeplechase and hurdle races:

Orade, by Order—Ganges II.; Mildred D., by Exile—Active; Abide, by Deceiver—Kitty M.; Teller, by Luke Blackburn—Carrie A.; Helena
Belle, by Don Carlos—Ethel Wiley.

The application of Cass Sloan for a jockey's license was denied.

Application for reinstatement lodged by the following trainers and jockeys were approved: Jockeys—Frank Femenore, John S. Patton
and Charles Neel.

Trainers—James Fitzsimmons, Thomas N.
Miller, J. W. Pangle, W. S. House, William
Lewis, John J. Castles and James Hogan.

The following licenses for 1900 were granted:
Jockeys—Charles Brown, Joseph Boland, W.
Brennan, Harry Brown, A. Booker, John Corbly,
John Cobb, Fred Cowman, P. Clay, M. Daly, W.
Dean, Harry Eades, Robert Feakes, Edward J.
Flynn, Hilton Henry, J. Hart, John W. Hother-sall, Orrin H. Kennedy, F. J. Landry, Patrick Lehane, J. C. Mitchell, E. McJoynt, Joseph Mc-Gann, Harry Michaels, James Michaels, George Odom, H. J. O'Connor, Frank Russell, Benjamin J. Rigby, William Shaw, Maxwell A. Silvers, J. Slack, Frank Smith, John Tabor, John West, T. Walsh, C. Wilson and Otto Wonderly.

Jockey Rigby, who is creating such a furore
over the pond just now, is well known to many of the owners racing in California now. "It must be pretty easy over there if Rigby can win
so many races," said a prominent owner yesterday, who had given him a number of mounts.
"Rigby is a brother-in-law of George Webb, who once trained for Dan Honig, and he hails from some little town down in Missouri, which state

has produced as many horsemen as the next one. Rigby got in trouble on one of the western tracks a few years ago and went to riding on the outlaws. After riding there a time he got reinstated and went back on the big tracks, but never was a howling success anywhere. The only place where he ever did make a reputation was riding jumpers. This was his long suit,
and he was chiefly noted for his fearless riding.
There was not a chance he would not take. He would go through any kind of a hole and take any kind of a risk. I'll bet he is doing some great daredevil riding over in England to make a record for himself. If Rigby can catch on permanently, then there is not a jockey in America who cannot."—Breeder and Sportsman.
